Ref: Application no. 10/ 042,433,

Your notice to file corrected application papers, received by me on January 24th 2003. letter ref OC 000000007449286.

Dear Sir,

Your notice was originally mailed on Feb 8th 2002 but was not delivered to me.
I came to know of it, when I telephoned your office for status on Jan 13th 2003.
Earlier I wrote to your office in April 2002 but there was no response.

What I received now is a copy of the notice dated Feb 8th 2002,
Posted on Jan 15th 2003 in Washington and received by me on 24th Jan '03.
I will post the drawings after correcting them to meet the Margin requirements correctly, within Seven days from 24th Jan.

I request you not to insist on the Extension fee on two grounds.

1. I did not receive the original notice.
2. The delay is more than 10 months. The fees chart mentions fees of 980 dollars for an extension of 5 months. Certainly the figure for 10 months will be very high and way beyond my means, as I am a retired person and small entity.

Request a line in reply,

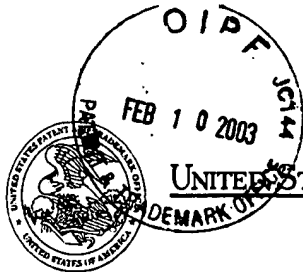

Yours truly,

B. Gopinath.

24th Jan '03.
